Subject — Nominations requested for educational programs offered online on MOOCs platform by MANAGE, Hyderabad— reg.

Dear Sir / Madam,

National Institute of Agricultural Extension Management (MANAGE), Hyderabad established in 1987, is an apex level autonomous institute under the Ministry of Agriculture and Farmers Welfare (GoI) with focus on strengthening agricultural extension system in the country.

MANAGE offers two Online Educational Programs of one year duration through MOOCs platform, with focus on Agricultural Extension and Agri-warehousing Management.

Post Graduate Diploma in Agricultural Extension Management (PGDAEM- MOOCs) is the program with focus on Agricultural Extension Management. The program aims at updating the knowledge and skills of extension personnel to help them transform farmers into agripreneurs. The program is open for both national and international candidates.

Post Graduate Diploma in Agri-warehousing Management (PGDAWM-MOOCs) is the other program offered by MANAGE on MOOCs platform. The program aims at catering to the human resource requirement in the sector which is emerging due to various policy initiatives of the Government to promote agri-warehousing sector in the country. The program is open only for national candidates.

The brochures of both the programs are enclosed for reference. However, brief information about both the programs is provided below –
